SEVENTH PORTUGUESE CONFERENCE ON ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Funchal, Madeira Island, Portugal
October 3–6, 1995

(Under the auspices of the Portuguese Association for Artificial Intelligence)

Conference Co-Chairs and Program Co-Chairs:

Carlos Pinto-Ferreira, Instituto Superior Técnico, ISR, Av. Rovisco Pais,
1000 Lisboa, Portugal.

Nuno Mamede, Instituto Superior Técnico INESC, Apartado 13069,
1000 Lisboa, Portugal.

The Seventh Portuguese Conference on Artificial Intelligence (EPIA'95) will be held at Funchal, Madeira Island, Portugal, on October 3–6, 1995. As in previous issues ('89, '91, and '93), EPIA'95 will be run as an international conference, English being the official language. The scientific program encompasses tutorials, invited lectures, demonstrations, and paper presentations. Five well known researchers will present invited lectures. The conference is devoted to all areas of Artificial Intelligence and will cover both theoretical and foundational issues and applications as well. Parallel workshops on Expert Systems, Fuzzy Logic and Neural Networks, and Applications of A.I. to Robotics and Vision Systems will run simultaneously.

Submission of Papers:

Authors must submit five (5) complete printed copies of their papers to the "EPIA'95 submission address". Fax or electronic submissions will not be accepted. Submissions must be printed on A4 or 8 1/2" × 11" paper using 12 point type. Each page must have a maximum of 38 lines and an average of 75 characters per line (corresponding to the LaTeX article-style, 12 point). Double-sided printing is strongly encouraged. The body of submitted papers must be at most 12 pages, including title, abstract, figures, tables, and diagrams, but excluding the title page and bibliography.

Planning to Attend:

People planning to submit a paper and/or to attend the conference or attend a workshop are asked to send a note (inquiries address) stating their intention, as early as possible, to the conference organizers, in order to estimate the facilities needed for the conference.
